

Use the following website for this part of the worksheet.

<http://www.howstuffworks.com/cookie.htm>

Internet Cookies

1. What is a valid definition of a cookie:
2. Explain what a single name-value pair is:
3. On your home computer; search for “files or folders” named cookies. When you find one, open the file with notepad. Copy the entire text. Do Not Delete the File
4. Name two different pieces of information that the server can send with the name-value pair:
4. In your own words, explain the five steps cookie data moves from a website to your computer.
5. How can YOU control the process of cookies sending data to and from your computer?
6. A cookie allows a site to store _____ on your machine.
7. What are five things a website can determine by using cookies?
7. Explain how sharing machines can create problems by the use of cookies.
8. Explain how cookies getting erased can be a problem.
9. Explain how using multiple machines can be a problem.
10. Explain how targeting is more precise with cookies.
11. Explain how Double Click can create cookies that are visible on multiple sites.